A body of able men meet in the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York—The New Moderator, Dr. W. C. Roberts—Some Presbyterian Facts.

The appointment of Mr. John Jarrett as United States consul to Birmingham attracts a great deal of attention, considering as it does several elements of interest. It is a marked recognition of organized labor, a reward for political service, and at the same time a compliment to the labors of Birmingham and the people of Wales for Mr. Jarrett is by birth one of the latter.

On the body of a man found hanging to a tree in Missouri was found this card: "I did because I am too d—d lazy to live."

The entrance of Dr. Howard Crosby, chairman of the committee of arrangements, Dr. Charles L. Thompson, retiring moderator; Dr. Joseph T. Smith, of Baltimore, former moderator; William H. Roberts, stated clerk; and perhaps the best informed man in the assembly on the history of the church; Dr. Duffield, of Princeton, and other honored members of the denomination, were greeted by that quiet but joyful murmur which is the Presbyterian for "applause," and it was not till late in the afternoon, when religious as such had given way to business and business had considerably relaxed, that the assembly ventured to clap hands and laugh aloud.

Clark E. Carr, the new minister from the United States to Denmark, was born at Boston, Erie county, N. Y., in 1833. He went with his parents to Illinois in 1850, and in 1851 the family settled on a farm in the vicinity of Galesburg. Young Carr divided his time between the farm and Knox college and teaching school.

James Crumb, of Lyons, Kan., dreamed that his brother, who lived in western Kansas, was in some terrible danger. He hastened to his brother's home, and not finding him began a search. He soon found him in a well nearly dead from exhaustion. He had been there three days, and must soon have perished.

OUR ANSWER.

We are often asked how we are able to sell certain articles for less than the cost of manufacture. We answer that for various reasons there is continually being thrown on the market, goods, which though they may be first-class are broken in size, sometimes the remnants of a factory's output for the season which they wish to dispose of before commencing the next season's work, and in order to make a clean sweep, sell the lot at a big loss—sometimes goods are slightly soiled, but not damaged—sometimes mislabeled and for these and many other reasons goods are continually being thrown on the market and sold to the first bidder, and shrewd merchants who are always on the lookout for bargains and have the SPOT CASH to lay down, pick them up and offer them to their customers for a small advance upon cost in order to win the favor and good will of the trade and make their business boom. We have been asked why we do not sell these goods for a price something near their value and thus increase the profits of our business and yet satisfy our customers. We answer, because when we started in business we laid down a rule which was, to give our trade the full advantage of every DRY-WE could get, believing that in time the consumer would come to see and appreciate it—and we have never had cause to change our mind or abandon the course, for nothing has so contributed to build up our large and growing trade or taken so strong a hold on the confidence of the people as this plan of giving them the full benefit of every bargain we can secure. When we bought the stock of A. C. Shyer & Co., at 50 cents on the dollar, you will remember we gave to our customers the same discount (an unparalleled proceeding in the history of business) freely. Last winter we bought 50 dozen Bull Dog Jeans Breeches at 15¢ their value and sold them accordingly at 50 and 75 cents per pair—their real value being 15¢ and 25¢. This Spring we got hold of 100 doz. men's pure linen 4 ply collars for almost nothing and gave them away for 5¢ per doz. We bought 800 pairs of child's knee pants made of merchant tailor's remnants, all the very finest all wool worsteds and cassimeres worth $1.25 to $2 per pair, we are selling them at 75 cents. We struck at an assignment sale in New York this Spring, the finest and noblest line of custom tailor made suits you ever laid your eyes on and bought them for not a cent over half value and are selling them the same way. Last week we bought 25 dozen best Blue Cottonade pants at 25¢ less than cost of manufacturing because of a slight misprint, they are worth 75¢, we sell them for 50¢, less than you can buy the goods. We struck 50 dozen of the very finest quality of British Socks, Summer weight at half price and we are offering them at 12½¢, usual price being 25¢.

From the same Importer we cleaned up 20 doz. of the very finest French Imperial Lisle Socks that we are selling at 25¢, usual price 50¢. These goods we can sell at twice our price and still be cheap, but it is not in accordance with our scheme of doing business. We are constantly on the lookout for bargains, and propose to give our customers the benefit of them. We have built up our faith in the appreciation of the people and believe that upon the plan laid down by us, we will soon build up a business that will surpass anything ever seen in this country, indeed it has already set in and we propose to keep it booming by selling the most goods for the least money. With "UNDERBURY AND UNDERSELL" for our watchword, we propose to bring the clothing trade of this whole country to Hopkinsville. If we could buy a suit for 75¢ we would put them to our customers for 10¢, a suit. Any merchant, any child almost can buy goods at REGULAR prices, but what the people want is a marching and giving them away and out of the intricacies in trade, who knows how to discriminate as to what to buy and what not to buy—who always has the spot cash to plunk down—who is shrewd enough to know how, when and where to find bargains, who has the most bargains at all times. Besides all this, the customer wants to go where he will find the largest and best assorted stock of standard goods, such as Strouse Bros. Tailor-Made Clothing. John B. Stetson's Hats. Earl & Wilson's Collared Cuffs. Wright & Richard's Fine Shoes. Cutter & Crossen's Men's Neckwear. The Wonderful Bull Dog Belts. N. J. Schloss & Co's. Beautiful Fitting Children's Clothing.

We are the only house in Hopkinsville handling the above famous goods, and we sell them at the same prices of common shop shop goods. Come and see and price them. We don't want you to buy unless you find them cheap, but come and see us and our way of doing business. We believe you will like it.

Complete and Overwhelming Success

IN OUR SPRING BUSINESS!

Crowds of buyers attest the fact: Honest effort must receive public encouragement, and we have acquired strength in our progress. Owing to our long experience in the business we naturally have advantages over other buyers, which enable us to sell many articles of clothing for less money than some dealers buy them for. And we desire to say right here that during our whole business experience we have never bought goods so low as our Spring Stock, and we are going to give our patrons the benefit of it. Suits we have heretofore sold for $20 we are going to sell for $15. Suits that are advertised as being great leaders for $12 to $14, we are selling for $8. We are not selling at half price, but an examination of the quality we are giving one would think we are doing more than that. We are not only selling clothing cheap, but Furnishing Goods are cut to the bottom. Look at the Personal Shirt we offer for 50¢, which can not be duplicated in this town for 50¢ per cent. more money.
